GENERAL BUSINESS

Commission conducted General Business of the County.

County Road Foreman, Jerry Mullins, met with Commission to discuss work being done on Race Track Hollow Road, Reagan Hollow Road & May Road, that are all FEMA project & therefore require a timeline. Also discussed were possible remedies for the problem on Hagee Road & bridge.

Commissioner Walker also assisted Mr. Finan with an issue at a bridge on Highway 43.

Mr. Marvin Morris, Safety Engineer for MoDOT, met with the Commission to discuss some requests made concerning a stop sign on Meadowlark Road & the possibilities for more safety signs at Bus 71 across from Wolf Den Road where recent fatalities occurred.

Also discussed by the Commission was the lack of response to the request for reimbursement of money that was spent inappropriately by a County Deputy. Commission agreed to wait & see if the money is returned after this next payroll & if not they will take action & request a meeting with the Deputy in question.

Several U.S. Bank Officials met with the Commission, County Clerk Barbara Williams & Treasurer, Joye Helm, to discuss future plans for the counties banking agreement.
