General Business

Betty Patterson met with the Commission regarding her property line. She was concerned some of her property may have been taken away. The Commission assured Mrs. Patterson none of her property had been taken by the County nor given to any other land owner.

The Commission met with Al Chapman, President of the McDonald County Historical Society, regarding insurance on the Old Courthouse. Mr. Chapman stated that the Historical Society was looking at lowering the amount of insurance on the building and contents. The County will pay the monthly insurance and the Historical Society will give the same amount back to the County. All parties were in agreement. The Commission also discussed the ownership of the Old Log Cabin Courthouse.

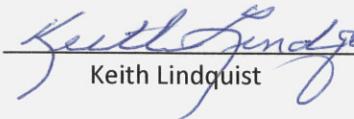

Robert Joos met with the Commission to inform them a berm had been formed by the County road grader in front of his driveway. He asked if the County could have it removed. The Commission told Mr. Joos they would have the County Road crew remove the berm.
